FSA Partner Summit – Appalachian Region

Location: Morehead State University - Morehead, KY
Adron Doran University Center

Date: September 26, 2019

Registration: 9:00 a.m.
Program: 9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

The FSA Partner Summit, hosted by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Federal Student Aid (FSA) in collaboration with Morehead State University and the Appalachian Education and Workforce Network, will host the 1st FSA Partner Summit in the Appalachian region.

FSA officials will provide federal guidance and FAFSA® updates. Representatives from the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA), Kentucky Community and Technical College System, GEAR UP Kentucky, TRIO, Skills U – Adult Education and workforce staff will also share information at the Summit.

The event will bring together partners from key organizations, institutions, and agencies in the Appalachian region to gain new knowledge about financial aid initiatives in support of individuals who want to pursue post-secondary education by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form. Summit discussions will emphasize objectives and strategies to assist with FAFSA® completion as well as provide networking opportunities for high school, college access, adult education, and workforce development professionals in the Appalachian region.

Who should attend: high school counselors, school and district administrators, college access providers, community-based and non-profit professionals, faith-based organizations, workforce development staff, adult educators and any other education stakeholders who are invested in helping students and families afford a college education.
