› Daniella

Program: Education & Leadership Foundation

Location: California

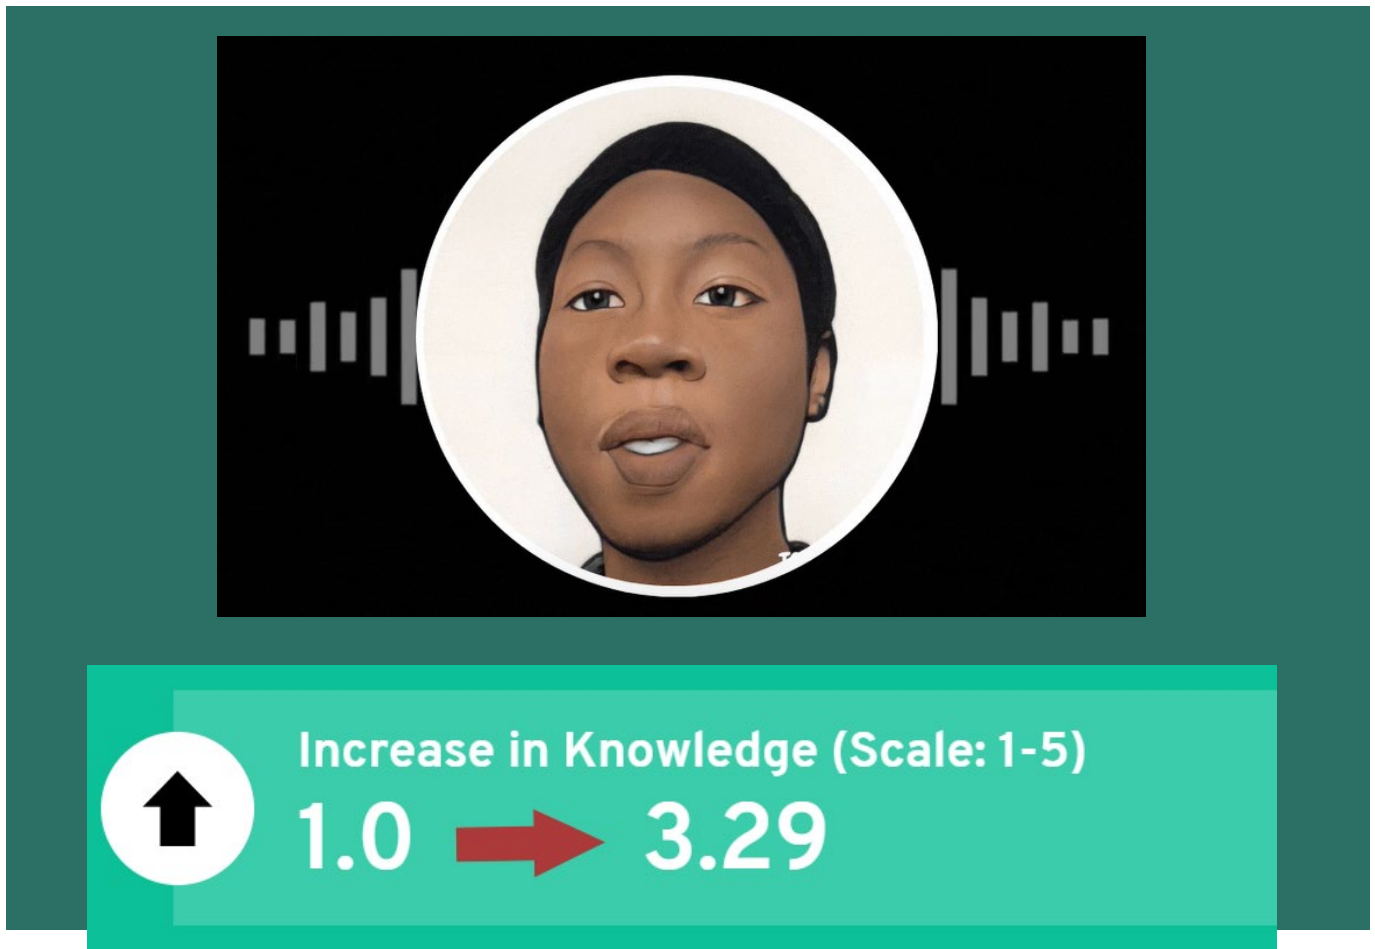

Grade: 12

Knowledge gained:

"Since I have been applying to scholarships one of the things that are required is sharing your story. I have learned to apply the power of storytelling through personal narratives when sharing my story. I have tried to make an impact when sharing my story, by talking about my struggles and where I come from, and my future goals and aspirations. Since I am in various peer mentoring programs, I have also applied the communication/interaction skills for different audiences.

During my time in this program I became aware of things that I didn't really know before and things that I didn't think much of. And this has definitely helped me when interacting with others and learning other things."

› Edward

› Gwen

Program: Education & Leadership Foundation

Location: California

Grade: 12

Knowledge gained:

"This program has helped me a lot to really put myself out there and to understand that my voice and opinion matter. It might not seem like much but after this program, I actually feel more confident in participating in other activities either from my school or my personal life. For example, whenever I'm in breakout rooms for school I actually become the first one to participate and encourage my classmates to do so as well in comparison to before where I would always keep my microphone on mute and the conversation would go nowhere.

Overall it was a great experience and I learned a lot of valuable information that I know I'm going to carry with me in the future."

› Martin

Program: Education & Leadership Foundation

Location: California

Grade: 12

Knowledge gained:

“One example was when in school many of the teachers weren't being fair to some kids who didn't understand English and still had to do the work same as others but they had a lot of trouble doing it, so I brought it up to the teacher telling him that they should at least get more time than others to understand the homework more.

This program has helped me a lot on realizing things I can do to benefit my community and my ethnicity.”

› Ram Par

Program: Clarkston Community Center

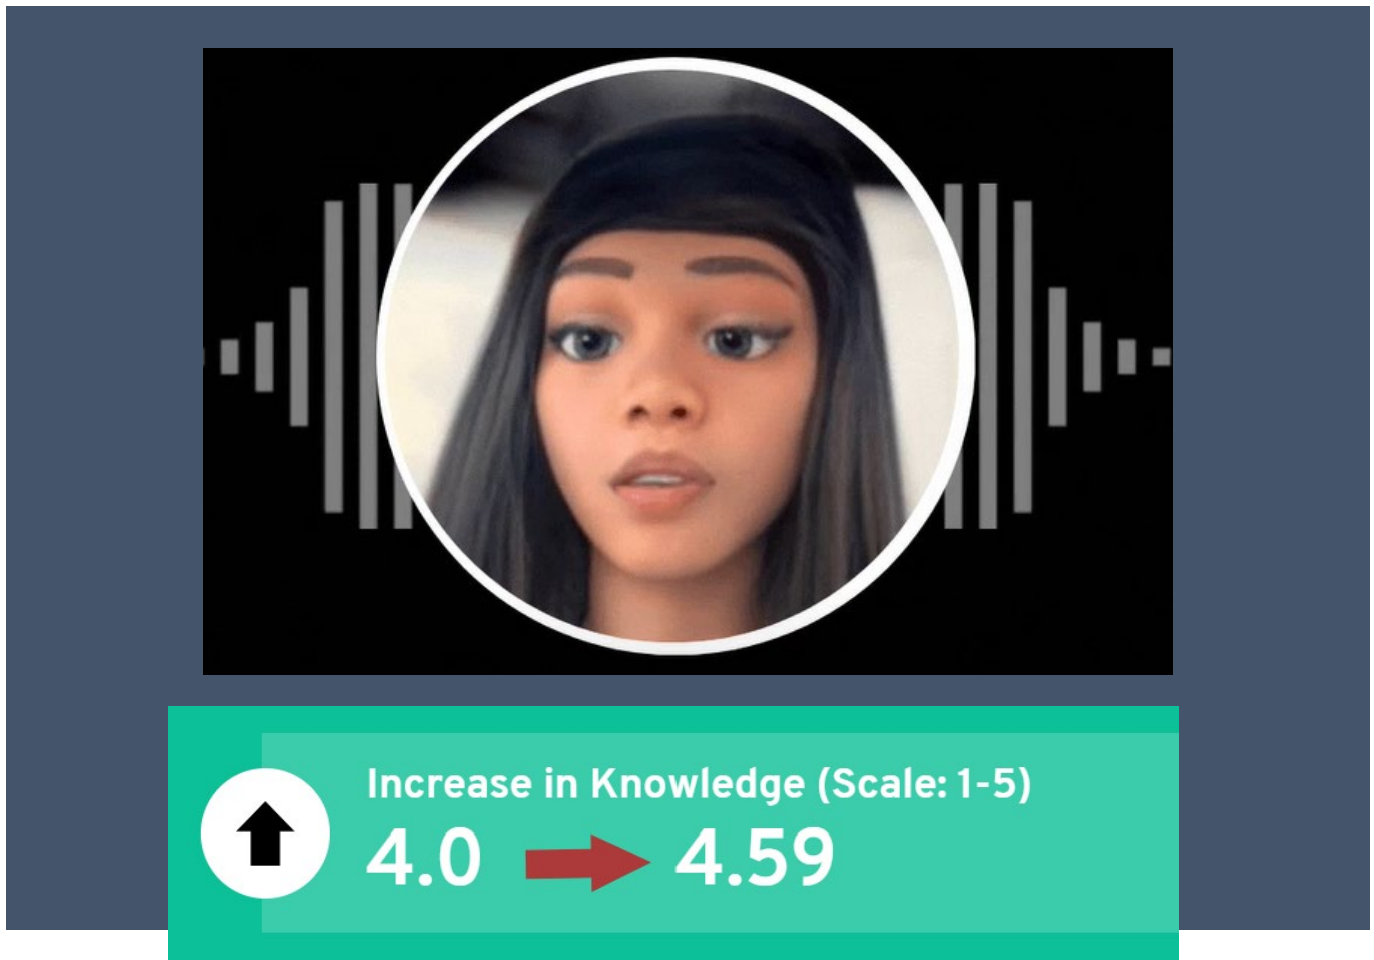

Location: Georgia

Grade: 11

Knowledge gained:

"Before I was in this program, I really didn't know or have [an] idea of how to interact with others or communicate. However, this program taught how a little thing can impact my conversation with others. It can be listening to others when they address their problems to me. Everyone has their own interaction skills so this helped me understand better of others.

I love this overall program. It has taught me many different things and has created a good impact in my life. "

› Sarah Rouiz

Program: Liberty Promise.

Location: DMV area

Grade: 12

Knowledge gained:

"I applied my knowledge/skills on the project that me and my group are working on. The idea of helping others and looking for the shelter and collaborating with people I never saw was very challenging but also fun but in the end we made it and now we are more than friends.

My experience was the best experience - I had new friends that worked on the same project and we made it happen because we worked all together so I am really grateful for that."
